WE NOMINATE

Thomas Marc Parrott and Oswald Veblen, two of the Princeton Community's distinguished senior citizens, who this week—as the University observed its 210th commencement and rang down the curtain on the “Dodds Epoch”—were among the 11 recipients of Princeton honorary degrees. Internationally known in their fields of achievement (Parrott in English Literature and Veblen in Mathematics) these remarkable teacher-scholars have fashioned careers that represent Princeton's rapid and ever-accelerating development into one of the world's great centers of learning and research. There is little, if any, resemblance between Princeton of 1957 and the sleepy hamlet they helped awaken early in the century when they were establishing their reputations and Princeton was losing its sense of insularity.

While Princeton in earlier decades had been a citadel of the natural sciences, it was under the guidance of humanists like Parrott, now in his 91st year, that Princeton scholarship began attracting attention in the 20th Century. Parrott, one of the handful of surviving members of the Class of 1888, joined the “College Faculty” in 1896—nine years before Veblen was called out of the West by Woodrow Wilson. In the next quarter-century, Wilsonian ideas swept away all vestiges of Princeton Past and catapulted Town and Gown into the so-called modern era—a period marked by the completion in 1931 of the Fine Hall of Mathematics, the first building of its kind in the United States and shortly thereafter the first home of the Institute for Advanced Study.

Veblen, a week away from his 77th birthday and a nephew of economist Thorstein Veblen, ranks among the few truly great American-born mathematicians. A native of Decorah, Iowa, who took his degrees at the University of Iowa, Harvard and Chicago, and a holder of honorary awards from Oxford, Oslo and Hamburg Universities, Veblen has been called a “giant of geometrics” as well as a “superb organizer.” During his 27 years in the University (1905-1932) and another 18 with the Institute (1932-1950) he was instrumental in creating the traditions and intellectual climate that have made Princeton the “Mathematics Capital” of the Western World. It was significant that upon retirement in 1950 he presided over the International Congress of Mathematicians.

In June, 1957, 22 years after a group of his former students signaled his formal retirement by publishing a group of essays on dramatic literature as a tribute “to the genius of his scholarship,” Parrott remains in love with literature. A near-contemporary of the Victorians and a mourner at Lord Tennyson's funeral in 1892, he has over the years divided his affections between the 19th Century and the Elizabethan playwrights. Indicative of his abiding “twin loves” are the last two books to appear under his name: “A Companion to Victorian Literature” in 1955 and just last year “Shakespeare: Six Plays and the Sonnets.”

For strengthening Princeton by becoming “citizens of first eminence in the societies of scholars;” for demonstrating that great teachers can “affect eternity” and can never tell “where their influence will stop;” for planning and wisely building throughout their careers; these two men are Town Topics' nominees for

FAIR AND WARMER
Hot Time in Old Town. Even Princetonians with longer memories than the Weather Bureau found it difficult this week to recall a more intensely hot spell over a period of so many days during another month of June. As of Wednesday, the old town perspired in 90-degree weather for the eighth straight day; the temperature was running 15 degrees above normal—unusual for late spring—and rainfall was way down for the month.

Residents combatted the No. 1 subject of conversation as best they could. If private pools were not available, they flocked elsewhere; the Hopewell quarry was jammed and swimmers were turned away from the Princeton Swimming Club last Saturday. Children in the Erdman Avenue area pleaded with workmen to finish the Borough's new wading pool there. Several appliance stores exhausted their supplies of air conditioners.

In an effort to raise morale along with the heat, many employers closed their offices early during the hot spell. The University and ETS, with a limited number of coolers, were among those who gave their employees a break or two. Graduation ceremonies proved much more uncomfortable than usual, but, here again, the University responded by reducing its customarily elaborate exercises to an hour's length by eliminating individual name-reading, diploma-receiving and the recessional.

Effects of the heat were everywhere in Princeton: on some Township streets as well as on most brows. A number of recently-paved Township arteries wound up with a liquid tar coating, caused either by the fact that their chemical contents have too-high a melting point or because the roads were paved too late in the year. It was so hot that Princeton officials were thinking about restricting lawn-watering, and, in nearby Hamilton Township, three women actually were fined $5 apiece for hosing their grass during the current emergency.

COLORFUL WEEKEND
Fun in the Sun. Those men of Old Nassau, who come back to "the best old place of all" each June, came back in droves last weekend for the University's unique Reunions — and a final salute to Dr. Harold W. Dodds, retiring president. It was a slightly smaller turnout than usual (just under 4,000 as opposed to just over), but a no less colorful or robust throng.
Calculating the reasons for a decrease in attendance, Princeton officials credited the extreme heat and the recent "Princeton-in-Princeton" program, a special tribute to Dr. Dodds which lured a number of alumni back in April instead of June. Unseasonably high temperatures undoubtedly deterred many nearby Princetonians, especially on Saturday (when the thermometer shot to 105-plus at University Field), and they also sent many wilted reuners home early.

In spite of the torrid conditions for Saturday's pre-baseball game Alumni P-Rade, a larger crowd of spectators than usual lined Prospect Avenue for the ever-colorful event. They got sunbaked in a hurry, but they were not disappointed as the perennially amusing costumes, signs, gags and humans kept smiles on their faces and cheers in their throats.

Leading the long line-of-march was the Rev. Dr. Charles R. Erdman, 20 Library Place, the P-Rade's oldest participant from the Class of 1886, accompanied by three younger generations of Erdmans (see photo, page 8.) One sign, a favorite of many, read "Dodds All," while two Classes went political — '22 featuring its newest honorary member, Gov. Robert B. Meyner, and '41 boosting its candidate, Malcolm S. Forbes, with such slogans as "No Meyner Vices." A Navy blimp honored '47's gallily attired sailors, but failed to drop promised '47 balloons because the '47er in charge of delivering the cargo never reached Lakehurst.

The 25th Reunion Class—1932—won a trophy for assembling the greatest number of members, 283, well under last year's winning total of 337 and the record of 347. B. Franklin Bunn, 38 Haslet Avenue, representing '07, accepted a cup for his class, which rallied 62.7% of its living members. And the "Old Guard," still going strong, braved the heat to meet—more than 325 of them—for their traditional Saturday luncheon.

Police noted that the reunion tents were generally quieter than usual and damaging incidents were fewer than in bygone years, but the area's beer distributors expressed full satisfaction. One celebrant, who returned a week early by mistake and then returned again at the right time, was hailed by his cohorts for un-Continued on Page 2

Today it's more important than ever to safeguard your investment in your house with a home repair loan.

If a minor repair job is neglected, it may grow into a major one — and the expense grows proportionately.

NY PROGRESS REPORT

Bids to Be Asked for Building. The new YM-YWCA Building has passed the working drawings and specifications stage and eight contracting firms have been asked to review them. Gerald D. Nelson, chairman of the construction committee, has announced.

The contractors will submit bids June 28. The bids will be opened in the presence of the contractors' representatives, Justice Dayton Oliphant, chairman of board of trustees, Morgan and Kassler, architects, and members of the YM-YWCA construction committee.

Alternatives covering certain elements of the project have been included in the request for bids to provide the YM-YWCA board with actual figures to determine what most urgently needed elements can be built at this time. If sufficient funds are not available to begin construction of the entire project.

The start of actual construction will depend on the ability of the bid-winning contractor to schedule the job. Demolition of Avalon will take place shortly before the start of the new building. Members of the construction committee are Dr. E. W. Engstrom, Samuel Frothingham, Mrs. E. Harris Harrison, J. T. McLoughlin, R. C. Miller, G. D. Nelson, Gordon G. Silkes, J. T. Volbrecht and Mrs. Heath Licklider.

PERSONALITIES

Thomas D. Dennison, 48 Patton Avenue, who last week was awarded a scholarship equal to five years' tuition in architecture at the University of Pennsylvania. Son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Landon Dennison, the 1957 graduate of Princeton High School was selected by the New Jersey Institute of Architects for the award given by the J. R. Quigley Co. following nomination by the Grover Lumber Co.

Chester A. Page, Washington Road, Penns Neck, who leaves next week to represent Princeton Lions Club as its official delegate to the service organization's international convention in San Francisco. Mr. Page (to fuel oil dealer in Princeton and ski resort operator in Vermont) will also serve on the Lions' International Elections Committee.

Edward J. Danavan, Olden Avenue, Princeton University basketball coach who achieved the distinction last week of steering his team to its first twin June victories

A graduate of Princeton University (29) and a career diplomat since joining the Foreign Service in 1931, the 49-year-old son of a former Princeton professor now is deputy assistant secretary of state for European affairs and once served as counselor at the U.S. Embassy in Moscow.

ROUND-UP

Washed out of the "rubber" game of the Midlet League World Series by last Friday's thunderstorm, the Plainboro Pirates created a little thunder of their own Tuesday evening and won their second straight championship triumph with a devastating 19-6 blowout over the Legion Orioles. The Series victory climaxed the Bucs' most successful season, which included 10 consecutive regular-season conquests and was marked by the Orioles' playoff-tying win in the second contest of the best-of-three Series. Speaking of the brief but terrific storm, it knocked down a number of large Princeton trees—one at the corner of Nassau and Snowden and one on the University campus—and yet the non-boo-secure Reunion tents held their own.

The Division of Alcoholic Beverage Control this week ordered Yeoman's liquor store closed for 10 days beginning next Tuesday, the first of three Princeton shops to receive a penalty for serving a minor over Houseparties weekend the noting that the normal sentence for Yeoman's should be 20 days, the ABC explained it was deducting five days due to the owner's non-fault pleas and another five, because the minor involved actually showed the proprietor an altered out-of-state driver's license that indicated his age was 21. . . the Wine & Game Shop and Sallies have not heard from the ABC to date. . . also on the legal front, Superior Court Judge Thomas Schettino has announced his plan to enter a final judgment in the "bride path" case soon. . . last week, he made public his current view, which call for a "split decision"—something for both sides.

Next Tuesday night at 7:30, the newly formed Princeton Community Band will hold its first rehearsal in the band room at Princeton High. . . Joseph Beavin, 8, of Benson, Vt., a nephew of Professor John A. Wheeler, 95 Battle Road, deposited the first nickel last Friday morning in the new Trinity Church parking lot. . . Eugene Rudd, 91 Mercer Street, who graduated from Miss Fine's School last week, has been awarded a $300 scholarship by the Women's College Club of Princeton, one of four Princeton secondary school students so honored for the others, see story, page 10. . . Municipal Court sessions in both the Borough and Township were postponed this week out of deference to the late Chief Justice Arthur T. Vanderbilt.

210th COMMENCEMENT
Princeton Gives 838 Degrees. In a torrid setting rarely, if ever equalled since 1747 for its all-pervading mixture of heat and humidity, Princeton University granted 838 bachelor, advanced and honorary degrees Tuesday morning on the campus in front of Nassau Hall. Scholars from more than 160 different institutions of learning in this nation and abroad were among those recognized for their achievements at the 210th commencement exercises.

With some 5,000 in attendance, the Class of 1967 completed four years of academic training, departing quickly for all parts of the nation to pursue careers ranging from further study to service in the armed forces and the start of occupational activity. For some, trips to the altar were also a part of the immediate future.

In Class Day exercises leading up to graduation, Princeton's most honored undergraduate, Michael M. Stewart of 26 Westcott Road, received still another outstanding distinction. He was the recipient of the Class of 1961 Medal, given annually to the member of the senior class "who has done most for Princeton during his undergraduate career."

In addition to Mr. Stewart, other residents of Princeton area receiving bachelor of arts degrees were: Fred N. Alyca, 4 College Road; Ralph J. Belford, North Road; John D. Bowers, 27 Linden Lane; Thomas A. Duckworth, 25 Haslet Avenue; Michael P. Erdman, 20 Boudinot Street; William R. Polst, 501 State Road.

Also, Peter A. Lappan, 201 Moore Street; William B. Mader, Jr., 29 Linden Lane; David T. McCune, 74 Snowden Lane Lee C. Meines, 86 Battle Road; Richard K. Orr, 401A Devereux Avenue; Murray S. Peyton, Blawenburg Road; Miller Beam, Jr., 49 Palmer Square; Gouthard T. Schaum, Wyman Cottage, Springdale Road; Philip H. W. Smith, 24, 50 Hedge Road; Richard N. Stillwell, The Great Road; Peter B. Wallis, 115 Broadmead; and William F. Wright, 220 Mercer Street.

Bachelor of Science in Engineering degrees went to David W. Almgren, 20 Southern Way; Charles K. Freericks, 351 State Road; Arthur D. Meritt, 99 Battle Road; Nathaniel B. Smith, 211 Prospect Avenue; and Dean F. Updike, 14 Hendrickson Road, Lawrenceville.

In addition to President Dodds (see picture, page 3), recipients of honorary degrees included two Princeton area residents, Thomas M. Parrott and Oswald Veblen (see "Men of the Week") and the following, in order of Tuesday's presentation:

Fairfield Osborn, President of the New York Zoological Society,

TOTAL SURPRISE: As a fitting climax to Tuesday's 210th commencement exercises (see left), the University conferred the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws upon its retiring President, Harold W. Dodds. The citation, which came as a complete surprise to Dr. Dodds, defined him as "a man of honor and courage, integrity and humor," who "has served us well with the infinite labors of a lifetime. As his name will be forever associated with a great epoch in the annals of Princeton University," it concluded, "as his character and deeds are graven forever in the hearts of all her sons." (Alan Richards Photo)

Doctor of Science: Edward C. Kirkland, Professor of History at Bowdoin College, Doctor of Letters; Paul J. Sachs, Professor in Fine Arts, Emeritus, Harvard University, Doctor of Letters; Robert L. Calhoun, theologian and philosopher, Doctor of Divinity; F. Cyril James, principal and vice-chancellor of McGill University, Doctor of Laws; Frank W. Abrams, chairman of the executive committee of the Council for Financial Aid to Education, Doctor of Laws; George W. Perkins, U. S. representative on the North Atlantic Council, Doctor of Laws; and Allen W. Dulles, Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, Doctor of Laws.

MORE WATER TALK

Reservoir Still in News. Though the extreme heat, humidity and lack of rain caused some residents to wonder this week if there is ever going to be enough water again to fill a reservoir—if there is a reservoir—the possibility of such a basin continued to claim its share of the news spotlight hereabouts. A third public hearing on the reservoir proposal was scheduled for the State House at 10:30 a.m. Friday, with the expectation of other lively sessions to follow.

ation will continue to explain its opposition to the State Advisory Committee's plan for a $150,000 bond issue which would include the Stony Brook project. The Citizens Committee for a Sound Water Plan will outline its position, also in strong opposition to the proposed reservoir. Opponents will support both "anti" groups with factual ammunition.

Presuming that all of those who wish to speak will not be able to be heard this week, at least one more public hearing will be set for sometime in July—and probably more than one additional meeting will be necessary. Other groups opposed to the bond-issue plan—the State Farm Freeholders—the Mercer County Freeholders are the latest to join the opposition list—will be asked to testify and, when the opponents' platform is finished, both sides will be given rebuttal opportunities and no doubt considerable cross-examination will take place.

Commenting on the situation, a spokesman for the citizens' committee said the debate likely will go on through July. He admitted the New Jersey Legislature, recessed as of Monday, might be called back into "emergency session" to consider placing the bond issue on the November ballot, but he reminded interested citizens that no legislative action will even be considered until the hearing sessions are over. He noted, too, that the legislators must make their decision at least 45 days before the election, or by mid-September, if the matter is not to die for this year.

Fund Drive Begun. Inspired by the fact that more than 3,000 persons from Princeton, Pennington, Hopewell and Lawrence Township have signed their names to the membership roll of the citizens' committee, the women's division of the group began an intensive fund-raising drive this week. George A. Brinkley of Princeton, treasurer of the committee, said the funds will be used to help defray expenses of technical and legal experts hired by the committee to analyze the soundness of the advisory committee's proposal for a reservoir and dam in this area, and to evaluate the practicality of building Stony Brook reservoir. For the Princeton phase of the drive, Mrs. Rene Leighton and Mrs. Hallet Johnson Jr. will serve as fund-raising leaders. Assisting them will be Mrs. Carl Brigham, Mrs. Matthew Gault, Mrs. Peter Grosz, Mrs. Harry Hart, Mrs. Hamilton Cotter, Mrs. John Wallace, Mrs. Richard Paynter and Mrs. Thomas C. W. Roberts.

At last week's public session in Trenton, Paul VanWegen of Pennington, president of the watersheds association, told members of the legislature that his eight-year-old organization "feels that the development of water resources in this area can best be accomplished by an expansion of its own small dams program rather than by the more extreme proposition."

Speaking for the 23 trustees of the association, Mr. VanWegen pointed out that the design for the bigger reservoir seemed to many citizens "wasteful and excessive," not only by virtue of the immense land area it would swallow, but because of the severe social (traffic and residential) and economic dislocations it would engender. He said that he, the watershed association, as a whole believes that a series of select, smaller multiple-purpose reservoirs could do equally as well and at a great savings in cost and in community and regional well-being.

The speaker concluded: We urge that our program "not be shunted aside and abandoned at this late date in favor of a quick-solution-at-any-costs project which might well be inferior in true value despite its delusions of grandeur."

Smith Letter Offered. On the other side of the fence, if not the dam, George Smith, president of Johnson & Johnson and chairman of the advisory committee responsible for the highly controversial reservoir proposition, this week addressed a letter to TOWN TOPICS covering his company's position in connection with the whole subject (see Mailbox, page 15). He also announced that he will conduct a special press conference for Princeton newsmen next Monday to answer all questions concerning the proposal.

Mr. Smith denied at last week's public hearing that his primary interest is in obtaining industrial water for his company, a charge made by opponents of the plan. The company, he stressed, has all the water it needs and assurance of getting more for years to come.

Alfred L. Test, chairman of the citizens committee, stressed that it is important for people to attend this Friday's gathering "to learn about the problem" and demonstrate support for opponents of the plan. He described support of his committee to date as "fabulous," and reiterated his contention that backers of the reservoir proposal "still have offered no facts on which any prudent executive would make a decision."

While one opponent of the Smith committee plan speculated this week that the death of rainfall so far in June might be making some persons water-concerned and therefore pro-reservoir, Borough Engineer I. Russell Riker, a trustee of the watersheds association, pooch-pooched this idea. He said, as an expert testifying this Friday, he intends to present data against the reservoir in such times, including his calculation that evaporation alone would be eating up 5,000,000 gallons a day, if the reservoir existed this hot week.

McCARTER THEATRE

Destine Dances. Princeton has learned to expect any thing and everything during the annual alumni Reunions. Jean-Leon Destine's "Carib Creole Carnival," which occupied the McCarter stage last weekend, provided just that.

A more elaborate version of the Calypso-Voodoo show staged by Senor Destine at McCarter in April, the "Carib Creole Carnival" featured a wide variety of dances and ceremonies native to the Caribbean islands. Before the evening was over the show's troupe, trained and led by Senor Destine, had provided Calypso, Meringue, Congo, Sanha, Bagine, Limbo, Mambo-Cha-Cha, Banda and Voodoo dances.

Interspersed through the well paced show were songs and specialties from the Caribbean tradition. Tedd Browne provided Calypso songs while Alphonse Cimber and Ednor Calvin demonstrated the varied personalities of native drums.

The most fascinating feature of the exotic performance, however, was King Rudy's "Steel Band." Made up entirely of tuned aluminum bottoms, the all-steel band thoroughly delighted the reunion-worshipped audiences, which were held to smaller than usual numbers by the unseasonably warm weather.

A special feature of the show was the "Scenic Lighting" — setting provided with a minimum of actual scenery and wide use of projected effects — provided for the performance by Carter Morningstar. Developed with wide success in Europe, the Morningstar method has not yet been seen on Broadway.

UNIVERSITY PLAYERS

Summer Plans Progress. The University Players' 11th week went into rehearsal for the opening production of their eight-week season, which will begin in Murray Theatre Saturday, June 29. "A Streetcar Named Desire," highly-regarded Tennessee Williams play, will open that night and repeat from July 2 through 6.

Resident members of the company to be seen in the first show will include Eileen Ryan and Peter Falk, both of whom have recently appeared in the Circle in the Square in New York. Miss Ryan (cast in the role of Blanche in "Streetcar") was cited by the New York Times' Brooks Atkinson for her performance in a leading role in Chekov's "The Three Sisters" at David Ross' "4th Street Theatre."

Mr. Falk, widely seen in television, played the part of the bartender in "The Iceman Cometh" and the soldier in "Saint Joan" in two successful off-Broadway shows. He will be seen as Stanley in the Tennessee Williams show here.

Another resident member of the 1957 Players will be Donald Moffat of England's Old Vic company. Active with several British repertory groups, he will appear this —Continued on Page 6

SHE'S AN "O.K." GAL: Rhonda Fleming plays the chief feminine interest in "Gunfight at the O.K. Corral," top-flight western film which will continue through Tuesday at the Playhouse.

Far Whom the Bell Tolls (June 24-29), enhanced by some fine Technicolor work but minus the post-World War II development of CinemaScope, returns to Princeton by popular demand as the Garden's final presentation before the air conditioningless theatre's annual summer closing. Set in Spain during that country's bloody Civil War of the 1930's, the picture still seems a bit too long, but the Ernest Hemingway touch is still dynamic and the actors—headed by Gary Cooper and Ingrid Bergman—are at their best. Special mention is rated by Alvin Tarnoff and Katina in support, and also by Sam Wood, who gives this oft-platitudinous, over-touching wartime love story just the direction it requires.

IT'S NEW To Us

OFF BROADWAY

With Hay and a Hoe. A mile beyond Franklin Park on the corner of Route 27 and a pleasant country lane called "Broadway," there is a big red barn (which you can't see from the road). It is the hub of De Vries Garden Center, an establishment that combines the functions of nursery, lumber yard, gift shop and furniture store.

The nursery aspects of a Garden Center are, of course, obvious, and outside the big red barn De Vries has row upon row of shrubs, trees,
and among else with a root system. Nearby there are bales of peat and stacks of fencing and so many more of pavement for terrace or porch that it would take a contractor to identify them all.

Used bricks, for one thing, and you know how difficult they are to find. Besides these, there are grey flagstones and pale pink ones and new bricks, and all kinds of cement bricks if you want to pave a patio or make a garden walk with something different.

Inside the big barn, there is a warehouse devoted to fertilizers, and adjoining it is a room that has about everything you could possibly want, once you step outside your garden door.

Besides the chuck wagon (see box) there is a large collection of redwood furniture and garden accessories. You're familiar with the classic redwood chair. To match it, De Vries carries redwood patio tubs—little polygons that start at 10 inches in diameter and go all the way up to a giant three-foot tub that would be a permanent fixture on a spacious patio.
There's a square redwood planter,
too, that could be incorporated into the actual structure of a house. Other redwood pieces include trellises in various heights,
round tables and circular benches,
oblong tables and long benches.

If your tastes are less rustic than those of the gardeners, there are black and white metal planters, delicately bound with brass, and garden
umbrellas that show a burst of roses
on the underside.

De Vries customers apparently do not spend all their time lounging on patios because the Center has an alarming array of work-horse garden equipment. Sprayers, for example. There's a thing called a trombone sprayer that consists of a plastic hose with one end in a bucket. This can also be used for white-washing. If such is your need. Other, more conventional sprayers abound.

Garden tools by Ames include edgers, hoes, small and large spades. Hoes by somebody or other, white stripes around the red or green background.

Toast to a New Year. This un-

Come and Get It!

De Vries' Garden Market,
whose perennial activities are described elsewhere on this page, has one of the most impressive chuck wagons east of San Antonio. It's really more like choice portehouse.

The entire wagon is redwood. It measures three by five feet with solid wooden wheels to hold it up and push it along, and a rack for everything but the cook.

At one end there's a charcoal grill whose top is level with the redwood surface of the wagon. A nearby slot holds barbecue tools which are included. Two deep, rope-handled drawers take care of sauce bottles, mitts, chef's hats and the special knife to scrape off the burned parts. There's a deep bin at the end for scraps.

Two feet away, in De Vries book department, is "How to Serve a Barbecue."

seasonable greeting goes to Claridge's, the liquor store that celebrates this week its first year in the handsome new store next to the J&P in the Princeton Shopping Center.

Here, behind the African violets and the burgeoning philodendron (we have heard wondered whether a searching eye might not find a hop vine for a juniper berry
in all that magnificent foliage), Claridge stocks a full cellar of wines, a full refrigerator of good cold beer and anything else you need if you're thirsty.

In appreciation of your thirst, Claridge offers a half gallon of its own gin at $7.75, and a half gallon of its own 80-proof Vodka at $7.98. Both these labels are exclusive with the store.

Rose wine for summer might include the Chateau de St. Martin ($14.99), a Tavel, Pavillon Rose du Rhône, a Bordeaux rose or Anjou rose. For a white wine, choose the Pouilly-Fuisse or Vouvray.

Beer drinkers will be relieved to learn that Claridge has the biggest ice-box in town. It's the kind you can walk into, and it holds 250 cases of beer which is more than you can say for most beer-drinks.

"Thank You So Much." If you're going to be on a bride's thank-you list, you might as well give her something she can really thank you for. Princeton Gourmet has any number of gifts that fill this specification, as a visit to Nassau and Harrison Streets will show. We are leaving out prices because brides are sensitive.

FOUR OF A KIND: When Princeton University's impressive Alumni P-Rade wound its way into University Field Saturday afternoon, an inspiring sight at the head of the parade was a four-generation Princeton family. With the Rev. Dr. Charles R. Erdman, 20 Library Place, who graduated from old Nassau in 1886, were his son, Charles R. Jr., 20 Boudinot Street, a member of the Class of 1918; his grandson, Charles R. III, 73 Marion Road East, a member of the Class of 1946; and his great-grandson, six-year-old Charles R. IV, a prospective member of the Class of 1972. Also much in evidence (but pulling away from his father's right hand and thus out of the camera's range) was another great-grandson, five-year-old Richard Erdman. ### It's New To Us

36 inches. The cast frame is aluminum tubing and the wheels are extra large for easy wheeling.

The same aluminum alloy that framed the forklift tray has been used in several serving dishes. In these, the metal handles have been enamelled a light green and the entire of the enamel forms an interesting pattern. There's an ice bucket, a dip bowl, a casserole (pyrex) and candle warmer, and a big glass-lined casserole.

If the bride likes gold instead of silver, Gourmet has that oven-proof china with gold baked onto the surface. There's a two-quart casserole made especially for the Gourmet, a one-quarter, and a deep three-quart soufflé dish, assuming that any bride is daring enough to try a soufflé.

The attractive Danish teak you've admired at Gourmet has a new member. It's called a market basket but it's really a decorative handled bowl in that beautiful rubbed teak finish.

Some new bar glasses are plain and useful, and there are nine different kinds, which would get a new household off to a fine start. An ice-crusher would go along nicely. "Do Not Insert Ice Until Motor-Turned ON!" it warns ominously in three places. We'd like to try, just to see what happens. An electric knife sharpener by Cory does scissors, too. Another one sticks to knives. These Cory sharpeners have a stone, not metal wheels.

Take It Easy. At the Rug Mart on the Somerville Road you may now buy Mahawk percale sheet in pink, green, blue or yellow, for $49.50. With each sheet you get a mattress or boxspring by Shifman in either full or twin sizes.

"Mr. and Mrs." are two Scandinavian modern oiled walnut chairs, one slightly smaller than the other, each upholstered in dull gold, each $98.

For outdoor comfort, the Mart has wicker, chrome, canvas and wrought iron in appropriate combinations. A floral-covered chaise is $34.50; aluminum and wicker chairs and collapsible chairs range from $19.95 to about $32. You may have a butterfly chair, chaise of green, yellow, black or natural canvas for $8.95.

ADVERTISING VOLUME is based on results. That's why, week in and week out, TOWN TOPICS has double the classified advertising volume of any other Princeton papers combined.

PHS SETS RECORD
Graduates 237 Seniors Wednesday, Princeton High School's record-setting Class of 1957 is now seeking new worlds to conquer after graduating Wednesday evening with pomp and ceremony at McCarter Theatre despite anti-cap and gown weather. Inspired by its graduation theme, "Our Symbol of Liberty," the class received diplomas as strong, an increase of 24 over last year's contingent.

Mrs. Thelma C. Young, president of the Board of Education, handed the presentation of diplomas, with Irving W. Mershon, board secretary, honoring recipients.

ent of long list of scholarship and honors, announced at the annual PHS awards assembly on June 10, three special awards were given. The Miles G. Thompson Memorial Cup, awarded by the Class of 1914 to a senior outstanding in scholarship, character and service to the school, was won by Volvieder, while the American Legion Medal, presented by the Women's Auxiliary of Princeton, Post No. 76 to a girl in the graduating class in recognition of highest qualities of courage, character, service, companionship and scholarship, was won by Miss Merzinsky. A comparable medal, presented by the post to the senior boy displaying the same qualities, went to Young.

Directed by Mrs. Wilma Harris, with Miss Louise Osgood serving as faculty adviser, the theme featured speeches by seniors Raymond Ridgway, Pauline Perry, Roger Morgan, Majia Merzinsky, Mireille Kriz, Carol Anderson, Karen Peterson and Frank Young. Kendal Dodge and Neil Volvieder were narrators for the program, which was written by Misses Anderson, Merzinsky, Kriz, Monica Beckin, and Mona Supinger along with speakers Morgan and Dodge.

In addition to the scholarships, announced for the first time at the graduation exercises and a variety of prizes and honors, announced at the annual PHS awards assembly on June 10, three special awards were given. The Miles G. Thompson Memorial Cup, awarded by the Class of 1914 to a senior outstanding in scholarship, character and service to the school, was won by Volvieder, while the American Legion Medal, presented by the Women's Auxiliary of Princeton, Post No. 76 to a girl in the graduating class in recognition of highest qualities of courage, character, service, companionship and scholarship, was won by Miss Merzinsky. A comparable medal, presented by the post to the senior boy displaying the same qualities, went to Young.

Scholarships, Number Twenty-four. Mr. Mershon revealed the names of 24 graduates who have earned scholarships as a result of their top scholastic work at PHS. Those so honored were: Lee Edwards, $500 from the Princeton Rotary Club; Miss Merzinsky, $500 from the Women's College Club of Princeton; Young, $250 from RCA; Deborah Bochner, $250 from Arnold Constable; Lois Klockner and Edwards, $250 each from the PHS Parent-Teacher Association; Miss Merzinsky, $250 from the PTA; Miss Peterson, $200 from the Women's College Club; and Sandra Black, $200 from the Women's College Club. Also, Misses Black, Peterson, Therese Cahill, Carol Goetz, Penelope Peabody and Anne Willis and Robert Foherty, Walter Mergerson, and Barry Tindall, $100 apiece from the PTA; Miss Merzinsky, $100 from patrons of music in the Princeton area; Suzanne Hill, $100 from the Princeton Township P. T. A.; Julia Somerville, $100 from the Friendship Club of Princeton; Mildred Handon, $100 from the Ladies Auxiliary of the Lions Club, and Miss Cahill, $100 from the Business and Professional Women's Club of Princeton.

Names of the 1957 PHS graduates, with those receiving honors started:

Mrs. Stoll has been honored with a life membership in the organization in recognition of her distinctive services rendered. Group singing will be accompanied by Miss Helen Simpson on the autoharp.

PROGRAM PLANNED
Democrats to Advise Commencing this Thursday, the Princeton Democratic Club will send its members a door-to-door coverage of the Borough and Township to acquaint the townspeople with local and state laws governing voting registration. The organization has announced that district 2 in the Borough will be the locale for the first effort, with all other districts to be covered before the November election.

Edward Sweeney will direct the work of the borough and William Whately will be in charge of the Township canvass. Armed with information regarding registration requirements, members of the Democratic Club will be ready to answer all questions as they blanket the Princeton Community.

YWCA Summer Program. The Princeton YWCA has announced that its summer program will feature special activities for The Tuesday Mothers Morning Out, The YWCA International Club, The YWCA E&F Club and the Friday night groups in English conversation.

outdoor painting and sketching under the direction of Mrs. Constance Bonetto, will be featured as part of the Morning Out, which will begin June 18. Mothers may leave their pre-school children in the outdoor nursery at 4 Green Street during the two-hour meetings. Mrs. Ferdinand Beruch will be in charge of the nursery. Golf practice will be included in the Morning Out program.

The YWCA International Club is planning special Thursday evening programs for members and friends, including picnics, a trip to the Music Circus and a day at the beach. Miss Elizabeth Genton, Miss Doris McBride, Mrs. Adelaide Cima, Mrs. Albert Kren and Mrs. Domine Zulin comprise the summer committee. The E&F Club is extending open house to all young adults for Tuesday evening events. Miss Mary Klein, president, reported. The English Conversation groups will continue through July and August, including informal classes for beginners, intermediates and advanced students. The teachers are under the leadership of Mrs. William R. Babcock. Further information about the summer program may be obtained by calling 1-239-W.

Meyer Appointed. Walter H. Meyer has been named an assistant survey director at Quinlan Research Corporation, Dillman M. K. Smith, vice-president announced this week. Mr. Meyer, a market researcher who comes from South Orange, is a graduate of Antioch College, where he received a degree in bachelor of arts in statistics.

After receiving a master of science degree in marketing research at Columbia University in 1964, he worked in the purchasing department of the Continental Can Company, Paterson. He started graduate work toward a doctorate in marketing at the University of Florida before joining Opinion Research.

A Vote Of Thanks

The Kiwanis Club of Princeton takes this opportunity to thank the people of Princeton and surrounding communities for their generous support of the club's annual fund-raising project. This year, badly needed money will be obtained from a performance of the engaging musical, "The Pajama Game," at 8 p.m. Sunday, June 23, at the Music Circus in Lumberville (tickets still available at the box office).

As a result of last year's sponsorship of "Plein and Fancy," Princeton Kiwanians were delighted to complete these activities:

- (1) Purchase of Cub flags, Den flags and an American flag for Pack No. 43 of Princeton.
- (2) Financial sponsorship of a baseball team in the YMCA-operated Princeton Midget League.
- (3) Financial assistance in backing a dance for seniors at Princeton High School.
- (4) Sponsorship of a Little League boy's trip to a Major League game.
- (5) Medical care for underprivileged children.
- (6) Free dental care for youngsters selected and approved by local school principals.
- (7) Donation of $300 to N. J. Neuro-Psychiatric Institute for purchase of shoe skates for child patients.
- (8) Contribution to the Princeton Hospital building fund.
- (9) Appropriation of $300 for mental health orthodontic research program.
- (10) Purchase of a 16 mm movie projector for the Princeton Y.
- (11) Donation of an aluminum canoe to Boy Scout camp.
- (12) Donation of TV set to the Salvation Army.
- (13) Contribution to the Mercer County Chapter of Mental Health Association.
- (14) Participation in the March of Dimes and United Fund drives.
- (15) Support of the Association for the United Nations, New Jersey branch.

With funds received from "The Pajama Game," the Kiwanis Club plans to sponsor these projects:

- (1) Boy Scout camp scholarship.
- (2) Girl Scout camp scholarship.
- (3) Columbus Boychoir scholarship.
- (4) Sponsorship of Midget League baseball team.
- (5) Baseball trip to Major League game for boys.
- (6) Sponsorship of PHS senior dances.
- (7) Allotment to needy Boy Scout troops.
- (8) Allotment to needy Girl Scout troops.
- (9) Easter egg hunt for children and Christmas program for children.
- (10) Vocational guidance program for PHS and Lawrenceville Junior High School students.
- (11) Assist Public Health nurses in Princeton to obtain their advance degree in psychiatric training.
- (12) Support of Rutgers University cancer project.

A MATTER OF GREAT CONCERN: Sparked by Town Topics' Question of the Week (read below), three Princeton visitors became engrossed in a stimulating argument this past week. Dr. J. Clark Gleason (left), Harry Exner (center) and Thomas Birmingham found that mere mention of a ban on nuclear tests for health reasons was enough to cause lengthy consideration on the many pros and cons. They brought divergent viewpoints from different localities.

Question of the Week

Question: Do you agree with the scientists who urge a nuclear tests ban for health reasons?
Location: Around town.

Robert Nelson, 158 Spruce Street, proprietor of Nelson's Glass Shop: We're not sure about the danger to health. I feel we should be absolutely sure of the health factor before we abolish the tests. Until we're sure, or until we can convince others that a world-wide ban is necessary, we will be endangering our national security by imposing a ban in the United States.

Reed Bundy, Washington, United Press newspaperman: Yes, I agree with the scientists—because we know people are being damaged by the tests, and will be damaged in the future. The fact that only one human might die prematurely due to them is enough to convince me. It doesn't matter how small the percentage of the population is affected—one death is enough to prompt outlawing of the tests. We probably have all the bombs we need to flatten Russia anyhow.

Harry Exner, Trenton, telephone installer: If the ban were a world-wide one, it would be a very good idea—but it's got to include everyone, not just us without the Russians. I can certainly see how the tests might be a threat to health, especially in view of what's happened in Japan since World War II. Yet, the tests represent something which must be done because of the continued conflict between nations.

J. Clark Gleason, Somerville, dentist: I don't agree with Dr. Pauling and his supporters (see box, this page). On the basis that I have complete faith in the Atomic Energy Commission, I don't believe any one individual or group has accumulated information to make such an important decision in opposition to the AEC. Finally, we have no idea whether we'll be able to get together with the Russians on the subject. My philosophy regarding any matter such as this one is: where I lack knowledge, I depend on the opinion of the authority "in the know," or in this case, the AEC.

John A. Macleod, 14 Hamilton Avenue, advertising man: Yes, I'm in accord—but only if we achieve a real iron-clad agreement with the Soviet Union so that our national security is safeguarded.

Thomas Birmingham, West Hartford, attorney: I don't agree with the scientists. Admittedly, Dr. Pauling knows what he's talking about—radiation affecting human beings—but, until we get the same scream from Russia, we're putting our heads in a noose to enforce such a ban. Let's hear from the Russian scientists first, to the effect that these

All-Out Against Fallout

Newspapers in recent weeks have been headlining pleas for a world-wide ban on the testing of nuclear weapons, the basis of the pleas being the belief that radioactive elements in the air already are damaging human health around the world. In particular, Dr. Linus Pauling, Nobel Prize-winning biochemist, has started a movement to line up the leading scientists of all countries in support of such a ban.

Last week, Dr. Pauling announced that 2,000 American scientists have signed a stop-the-tests appeal which he composed. "I should like to see the signatures of thousands of Russian scientists, of British and French scientists, of scientists of all the countries of the world, to this appeal," he said in an interview.

A key section of the appeal has this to say about Dr. Pauling's convictions: "As scientists we have knowledge of the dangers involved and therefore a special responsibility to make those dangers known. We deem it imperative that immediate action be taken to effect an international agreement to stop the testing of all nuclear weapons."

tests should be abolished.

Hans K. Sander, 73 Harriet Drive, architect: I would say that, ever since the first world war, when we changed from a debtor to a creditor nation and became an international leader—a situation which increased in the last war—we have been in a position where continuing weapon tests has been essential. In an era of power politics between two great powers, we cannot stop the nuclear tests right now, Russia very definitely has taken advantage of her weaker neighbors. We must be prepared and armed—and these tests are a definite part of such preparedness.

Palmer Bateman, Somersetville, pretty difficult for a person not "in the know" to answer that question because people "in the know" can't even answer it. It seems to me we should take the conservative stand by listening to those who tell us of the dangers until we have a lot better evidence that the tests aren't really dangerous. We can just hope the Russians want to stop them as much as we do, and would follow our lead in stopping the tests.

"Friendly Town"

Again this year undisciplined children from the New York area will spend two weeks in and around Princeton as guests of Princetonians. The Junior Chamber of Commerce hopes that some 20 children, an increase of 13 over last year, will "vacation" in Princeton and experience life in a "friendly town."

The children will arrive July 23 and return August 6. A family which feels it can be host to a child will have a choice of a boy or girl in the 5 to 12-year-old range. Hosts provide room and board for the child, while all other costs, including insurance, are paid by the New York Herald Tribune Fresh Air Fund.

Last year's hosts included Mr. and Mrs. L. A. DeRosier, Mr. and Mrs. Deles C. Schuch, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Cook, The Rev. and Mrs. James Middleton and Mr. and Mrs. John Lasky of Princeton, and Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Van Wegen of Pennington. Information may be obtained by calling PHinec-ton 1-5157 or any member of the Junior Chamber.

from July 1 to September 15 and will offer individual instruction to a small group of boys in who require remedial or advanced study in secondary school subjects and mathematics in particular.

Mr. Furrer is a graduate of Princeton University and has taught at Princeton and at Morristown School. A former assistant headmaster at The Hun School, he is now teaching at the Choate School in Connecticut and is a visiting assistant in research at Princeton University.

No Water Shortage at J&J

To the Editor of Town Topics:

I have learned that a number of persons in the Princeton-Pennington area have given credence to a rumor that Johnson & Johnson has some direct or special interest in the recommendation of the New Jersey Water Resources Advisory Committee that a reservoir be established on Stony Brook. I am writing this letter, therefore, in an attempt to remove any misunderstandings that may exist on that score.

Johnson & Johnson has no water shortage and anticipates none. Its plant along the Raritan River in New Brunswick obtains its water from the Delaware Raritan Canal under a contract with the State of New Jersey. This contract runs for another 21 years, and there is no reason to believe that it cannot be renewed. The canal water comes from the Delaware River, not the Raritan or its tributaries.

The only other Johnson & Johnson plant in New Jersey that uses an appreciable quantity of water is the plant of an affiliate near Milltown. This plant obtains its water under a similar long-term contract with the City of New Brunswick; and the water comes from a tributary of the tidal portion of the Raritan River not connected in any way with the upriver Stony Brook-Millstone watershed nor the watershed of the South Branch of the Raritan.

Our new plant on Route 1 south of New Brunswick is a very small water-user and obtains its water from the City of New Brunswick water system. This plant also has the right to take water from the Delaware & Raritan Canal under the contract with the State of New Jersey mentioned above.

Thus, Johnson & Johnson would receive no direct benefit from either of the reservoirs recommended in the First Report of the Advisory Committee nor from the further projects that the Committee has under study.

I feel, however, that as a citizen of the state I have a duty to participate in projects designed to make the state a better place in which to live and work. The recognized water shortage in our state is a problem which must be solved if the state's proper growth, residential and economic, is to continue. This is the motivation which prompted me to accept the chairmanship of the Advisory Committee when requested to do so by Commissioner McClean.

Johnson & Johnson supports the work of the Committee along with more than an other industrial, business and labor organizations.

I shall be glad to meet with the local press in Princeton, both in my capacity as an officer of Johnson & Johnson and as Chairman of the Advisory Committee, to answer any other question that may be of interest to the Princeton community.

GEORGE F. SMITH, President
Johnson & Johnson

A Light Might Have Lives

To the Editor of Town Topics:

I'm trying to accomplish a seemingly simple thing: to obtain a spotlight at a dangerous intersection. I want to do it reasonably quickly before somebody gets killed. That's not so simple. The place is the intersection of Washington and College Roads. Everyone I have spoken to—maybe 200 or so—wants a spotlight put there. These people live in the Borough, the Township and the County. All sense that it's only a matter of time before a horrible wreck occurs. About 300 feet away from this place a Princeton boy died in March of 1956.

A few more facts. The place I speak of is blind beyond a couple of hundred feet on three of the four corners as one approaches in either direction from College Road. Cars frequently go 40 to 50 miles an hour down Washington at this point. At busy hours, one often waits six minutes or more before crossing.

Two cars were fouled into the chains alongside the road last summer. Last July, a truck-trailer combination at about 35 miles an hour started jackknifing by Terrace Club and nearly flipped over below the intersection. One man was thrown out of the truck. A light might have prevented that. It also might have saved the young man's life a year ago.

The Borough tells me it's not interested. That's because the Borough stops at 40 feet short of the intersection.

The Township tells me that the county takes over Washington Road after the Borough stops. So the Township isn't interested. University "jurisdiction" ends where College Road stops—just at the pavement where the intersection begins.

That leaves the county. From the county engineer's office, I learned that the State of New Jersey opened the light as a prospective county project about six months to a year ago.

The official said that the letter from the State had been on the desk of the county engineer for a similar length of time but hadn't been answered. The county doesn't seem to be interested either.

About that "okay" from the State to the County: the State is represented by the Bureau of Traffic Safety. A better name might be the Bureau of Uninterrupted Traffic.

They authorized the light, all right, but they said that first the University had to widen College Road by 40 feet on each side. That would cost about $200,000, one official said. Such absurd conditions by themselves would seem likely to keep indifferent Boroughs, Townships and Counties from even thinking about stoplights.

I wonder why, when everyone, practically speaking, realizes the urgent need for a single traffic Continued on Page 17

Three Princetonians received degrees at the 36th commencement of Harvard University recently. They are: Miss Christine D. Lear, of 136 Nassau Street, master of public health; John W. Lapsley, of Arretton Road, bachelor of arts; and Robert J. Rivers, Jr., of 21 Green Street, doctor of medicine.

Dr. Jan A. Rajchman of 368 Edgerstone Road and Chandler Wentworth of 42 Linden Lane have won a major award in the 1957 design competition sponsored by "Materials & Methods" magazine with a new "memory" plate for electronic computers. They are both members of the technical staff of the David Sarnoff Research Center at RCA Laboratories. Dr. Rajchman received his doctorate from the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology in Zurich and Mr. Wentworth is a graduate of M.I.T.

Richard J. Almond of 273 Western Way, a sophomore at Harvard University, has been awarded a Harvard College honorary scholarship "for excellence in the work of the preceding year." Mr. Almond is a graduate of Princeton High School.

Dr. Emil Ott of 56 Greenhouse Drive, has been installed as president-elect of the American Institute of Chemists at the annual convention in Akron, Ohio. Dr. Ott is vice-president of the chemical divisions at Ford Machinery and Chemical Corporation and director of central research.

"Mine of Misinformation"

To the Editor of Town Topics:
I should like to deplore in public and at some length the damage that has been done to the official map of Princeton Township, or to that version of it currently available to the public at Township Hall.

The previous neat, professional cartography has been obscured by a heavy hand. Street names are obliterated by the dots which have been added to represent houses, and no attempt has been made to move the name to a legible area.

The "house" dots seem to be completely arbitrary. Although the map's legend reads "additions Mar. 1957," many houses occupied WINS HARVARD DEGREE: Robert J. Rivers, Jr. of 21 Green Street has received his M.D. from Harvard University's School of Medicine.

since 1956 or earlier are not shown. Littlebrook School is nowhere to be found. The area is clumsily coded twice as "Possible School Site" and again as "Borough Property."
The interesting comment, "Private Property," is entered at the foot of Bayard Lane with two scraggly arrows whose significance is arcane. On my two copies a printing blot obscures the detail of the proposed junction of Terhune and 206. At least one unimproved road is coded as improved, and is nameless.

A nonexistent part of Lafayette Road is shown as contacting Elm Road and Lafayette Court. Westcott Court (also an improved road, according to the map) is still a gleam in the bulldozer's eye as far as the unprejudiced passer-by can determine.

The residents of Parkside Drive will be surprised to learn that it was considered a "proposed road" in March! In addition to the black dots previously mentioned and assumed to bear some reference to existing buildings, there is a small number of circles the same size, whose significance is nowhere imparted to the lay reader.

This mine of misinformation, and which even the new lettering is amateurish, costs 75c a copy, friends, and is the "Official Map" and "Part of Master Plan" of our Township! I urge all of you who have considered investing this sum to do so as soon as possible.

The cost is tax-deductible, and if you burn your copy immediately it can do no harm either to you or to the poor, innocent newcomer who might have naively assumed that it carried the weight of Authority, hence Truth.

SPORTS In Princeton

FIRST TIME IN 5 YEARS
Tiger Nine Trimla Yale Twice.
Despite the fact that each team made 14 hits, Princeton's baseball team recorded a one-sided 9-2 triumph last Saturday over Yale
in the annual commencement contest on University Field.
Herm Belz was the winner; the triumph duplicated a defeat of the Elis at New Haven on June and gave the team the distinction of being the first to top Yale twice on successive Saturdays since 1922.

Belz went the distance despite a broiling temperature that was well over 100 on the sun-scorched field. He walked only one and although he yielded 13 singles and a triple, was never in danger. Two early double plays helped him out and half of the safeties he gave up came after two were away.

Victors in Front Early. The Orange and Black took little time in taking the lead, getting away to a two-run bulge in the second and adding clusters of two in the third and fifth. A single marker in the sixth gave Princeton a 7-0 lead before Yale produced its two runs. In the seventh, the Tigers matching this output in their half of the round.

Gene Locks slung to open the second, Carl Belz walked and Tom Morris pushed them both along with a good sacrifice bunt.
Successive walks to Herm Belz and Tom Frost forced in one run, and John Vert drove in the other when he forced Frost at second.

Captain Reds McMillan opened the third with a 360-foot blast that traveled two-thirds of the distance up the right-field stands for a home run. It was the longest circuit blow into this sector
in five years.

The Tigers kept chipping away
at a slission of three Yale pitchers, every member of the starting team save Frost getting at least one hit. Big Carl Belz led the parade with three, McMillan, Locks and Morris made two apiece. Belz got unusually good support, aided and abetted cause thoroughly by starting one double play and later throwing the batter who had tripped out to the plate on a clear play.

Carl Belz hit .337. Finishing with a tremendous show of power, Carl Belz pushed his average all the way up to .337 for the season when he got a walk and three hits in five trips to the plate
Saturday. Second baseman Jim Lehman followed with a .313
mark, but none of the others hit
.275 and the team average was
.217. The year's record was 12-10-1.

There are five sophomores and two juniors on the team with only McMillan and Vert graduating.
In addition to the Belz twins,
shortstop Tom Frost, third baseman Gene Locks and right fielder Dick Edie are members of the Class of 1959.

Scaman Named Captain. Ed
Scaman, a left-hander who has a two-year won-lost record of 7-1,
will captain next year's team.
The 20-year-old resident of Perth Amboy finished the year with an

Herm Belz vs. Yale

When he pitched nine innings against Yale in Saturday's blistering heat, sophomore Herm Belz tied one modern Princeton baseball record and set another. Adding a 9-2 conquest of the Eastern League champion Elis to his 4-2 verdict over them earlier this month, Belz became the first Princeton pitcher to beat them twice in the same month since Roy Talbot turned the trick
15 years ago.

The 28 innings he pitched (including a 4-4 at New Haven on May 11) are unequalled for one hurler in the Yale-Princeton series. Ever that stretch, Belz allowed only eight runs and pitched 23 scoreless rounds. His season's record was 4-2 and he showed a fine earned run average of 1.82 in 94 innings, one of the largest totals a Princeton pitcher has worked in many years.

earned run average of 1.37 for the 52 innings he worked.

Seaman's best game was a fine
one-hitter he threw last month against Fordham. Paired with Herm Belz and bolstered by Mike
Ippolito of this year's freshmen, Seaman will lead a pitching staff that may do as much for the Tigers next season as Dave Slater, Ray Chirugl and Harry Brightman did in winning the District
Two NCAA title in 1952.

READY TO ROW

Crews at Syracuse. Princeton's varsity, junior varsity and freshman crews have been working out on Lake Onondaga for the past week in preparation for the annual national regatta at Syracuse. The colorful event will be staged Saturday afternoon.

Three weeks of inoff following the Eastern Sprint Championships on May 18 created a problem for Dutch Schoch in bringing the heavyweights back to the form that saw them win two of their four cup races this season. Dutch is optimistic over their potential ability, and has hopes that the extreme power with which he credits this boatload can be harnessed Saturday.

Defending champion Cornell is favored to win but Schoch looks for Princeton to be among the crews battling for runner-up honors. The Syracuse crew may be figured to provide the strongest competition over the three-mile course.

During the 1957 season, the Tigers defeated seven of the ten opponents they raced. For the first time in more than 30 years, entries from the Pacific Coast do not figure as much of a threat, since Washington has been barred from competition for NCAA violations and California and Stanford are not expected to finish in the money.

Doug Levick Honored. All-American rating has been accorded defenseman Doug Levick of the Princeton lacrosse team in his junior year. His parents lived on Rosedale Lane before moving to Greenwich, Conn.

Levick is a 21-year-old graduate of Exeter, where he captained
the hockey team and was an All-
New England lacrosse selection.
He is a member of the Princeton

JUNIOR LEAGUE SET
First Game July 1. Featuring a 12-game schedule for each of the four teams involved and a special Fourth of July doubleheader, the Princeton Junior Baseball League will launch its 1957 campaign on July 1. The loop, composed of teams sponsored by "sponsors" Bowers, Matthews, Nassau Oil and the Lions Club, will play four nights each week through August 13.

Lewis C. Bowers & Sons Inc. will sponsor a club managed by Thomas W. Collins, a newcomer to the Juniors but no newcomer to Princeton baseball. A onetime contract player for the Boston Red Sox organization, Collins competed for Louisville in the American Association until a muscle injury ended his hardball career. He later became a winning softball pitcher for Princeton Engine Company No. 1 in local circles. C. Lance Marshall, also a former baseball player, will serve as Collins' assistant.

After a year's layoff from the coaching ranks, James Brown will return to the league as leader of the Matthews nine. Brown did a fine job with the Juniors in years past, and also was known for years as the regular first baseman for the Princeton representative in the old Twin-M League.

Paul Cuomo, who made a most auspicious beginning in the loop by guiding the Nassau Oil team to the title in 1956, his first year in the league, will be back with the same outfit, assisted by Vince Petrella. Bob Sinker, "dean" of the Junior players, again will pilot the Lions aggregation, aided by Simon Moss, Witherspoon School baseball coach.

On July 1, Matthews will officially open the Junior League season by meeting Nassau Oil. On July 2, the Lions will play Bowers. Then, on July 4, the Princeton Midgel League All-Stars will engage in a "repeat performance" at 1:30 p.m., and the Juniors will play an all-loop game at 3 p.m., thus concluding action for the limited first week of the campaign.

All Junior games will start at 6:15 p.m.—except the July 4 twin bill, of course—and all will be waged at Brookway Field, according to B. E. Bergesen, league director. Rain date will be August 14, 15 and 16, while the Junior All-Stars will meet the loop's championship club on August 19 to complete the elaborate summer program.

Tigers Win in Tennis

Members of Princeton's Eastern Tennis Association champions completely dominated the Eastern Intercollegiate in the sport last week. Junior Jim Farrin defended his title successfully, trimming Shaw Emmons of Denison, 6-4, 6-3, 4-6, 6-2.

Farrin and Dave Brechner, John Conroy's number one doubles combination during the past season, won the doubles title in an all-Princeton final. They defeated John McLean and Perry Raddick in straight sets, 6-4, 6-2, 6-4. The double triumph kept the Tod Backe Challenge Trophy, emblematic of team supremacy, in Princeton's possession.

TENNIS UNDER WAY

Three Net tournaments start. Thirty-three players were entered this week as action began in the Red Feather Junior Tennis Tournament. Titles will be decided for boys 15 and under, boys 18 and under and girls 18 and under.

Contestants among the boys included Ralph Harbison, Jack Copeland, Norm Cantor, Peter Krauss, Craig Sommers, Fred Miller, David Grob, Terry York, Allen Tucker, Griffin Dix, John Thompson, Tom Petrone, Peter Epstein, Bill Pittzinger, John Fine, Andrei Fobin, Peter Holmes, Duff Collins, John Chandler, Winslow Marsten, William Morse, Dudley Clark, Rob Kuser, Jimmy Shea, David Langston and Bill Perkins.

Allen Tucker and Ralph Harbison were seeded one and two respectively, among boys 15 and under. Top choices in the older group were John Chandler and Bill Pittzinger.

Entries in the girls tournament were Jane Bachelder, Norma Hutton, Susan Miller, Ann Sommers, Eva Barczay, Linda Brown, Deed Shipway, Julia Morse and Sandra Siford. Miss Bachelder and Miss Hutton were the seeded players.

YM TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Matches Set for June 29-30. The Princeton YMCA Tennis Club will be host to the Goodwill Tennis Tournament on the University courts Saturday and Sunday, June 29 and 30. The event is sponsored by the New Jersey Tennis Association and is open to the public.

The first 25 players from the Princeton area registering for competition in men's and women's singles will be accepted. The entry fee is $3; blanks and additional information may be obtained from George E. Holmes, 165 Witherspoon Street (1-3156). The deadline for filing is noon Tuesday.

Men's singles will begin at 10 in the morning on June 29, with women's singles play starting at noon. Semi-final play is scheduled for Sunday morning, with finals in both tournaments in the afternoon. No admission fee will be charged spectators.

Inaugural Sweepstakes. The first of what may become the annual 300-mile Hamilton Township Sweepstakes will be held Sunday afternoon on the Trenton International Speedway, part of the Jersey State fairgrounds. The sweepstakes will give eastern drivers who have been unable to enter the Pacific Coast race a chance to compete in a longer event than the sprint or midget car races held in this area.

The sweepstakes will be open to 1956 and 1957 sedans of all makes driven by members of the United States Auto Club, Indianapolis Speedway "regulars" like Jimmy Bryan, Johnny Mantz, Sam Hanks (this year's winner), Marshall Teague, Jimmy Reece and Bud Larson have dominated such races in the past.

$80,000 FOR YV CAMP
YMCA Fund Grows. General Robert Wood Johnson and Ralph S. Mason, co-chairmen of the volunteer group seeking $80,000 for a new Central New Jersey YMCA Camp, report that the fund stands at $80,000 with only 12 days left before the campaign is scheduled to close. The drive was initiated to provide a new and larger camp after YMCA Camp James J. Wilson on Marshall's Island in the Delaware River was swept away by high water in 1935.

The Central New Jersey YMCA Camps, a non-profit corporation to raise funds for and operate the camp, has been formed and seeks the money to purchase a 307-acre farm in Hardwick Township, four miles from Blairstown. With four buildings on rolling fields and timberland the farm, which also has a stream and a lake, offers ideal location for four villages, central dining lodge and athletic fields to serve 224 campers and leave room for expansion.

An option on the property must be taken up by July 1. The more than 500 volunteers seeking funds believe that YMCA camping helps boys and girls at a time of life when they need something safely venturesome, nobly wholesome—turning the "gang instinct" toward constructive group living. The camp has an artificial fresh water lake where swimming and boating can be learned. Proximity of the river for overnight canoe trips and of the Appalachian Trail for overnight hiking are among the assets.

The Camping Committee of the Central Atlantic Area YMCA, of geologists who have been consulted and of other experts on sanitation and recreation. Mr. Meeson, the Township mayor, said: "When the new camp opens next summer, the pleasure of knowing that we helped to build it will be ample return for the money we have given. If our own youngsters have a chance to use the camp, we receive another dividend from our investment."

Lions Elect Officers. Norton Jefferson has been elected president and Eric Milten first vice-president of the Princeton Lions Club.

Other officers are Martin Reef, second vice-president; William Schneeweiss, third vice-president; Hendrick Hearn, secretary; Nelson Thompson, treasurer; Meyer Goldstein, Lion tamer; Rudolph Lehner, tail twister; and Arthur Turner, Sr. and Harold Frazee, directors.

Wellesley Club Picks Leaders. The Wellesley Club of Central New Jersey has elected Mrs. Erling Deaf as its president for the coming year. She will succeed Mrs. Bruce Metzger who headed it during which netted $300 for the Scholarship and Development Fund at Wellesley College. Other new officers are Mrs. Bryce Maxwell, vice-president; Mrs. Charles H. Stevens, vice-president for New Brunswick; Mrs. Wilbert H. Patton, vice-president for Trenton; Mrs. Kenneth J. Almy, vice-president for shore area; Mrs. Richard Pearson, treasurer; Mrs. Lawrence Webster, member-at-large. Mrs. Roy Vogt and Mrs. Walter Wright will continue as recording secretary and corresponding secretary, respectively.

The Wellesley Club has selected Karen Peterson, daughter of Mrs. Sigurd T. Peterson of 204 Jefferson Road, as the winner of the May Margaret Fine Scholarship for 1937-38. She is a senior at PRINCETON High who will enroll at Wellesley College next fall.

Vassar Club Awards Grant. The Vassar Club of Central New Jersey has awarded its scholarship to Miss Margaret Slade, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James J. Slade of Middlebury. Miss Slade attended Highland Park High School where she participated in publications, dramas and choral work.

At the same time, the club elected Mrs. Dean W. Meyerson to a two-year presidential term. Mrs. Hector W. Griswold was named treasurer while M. R. Merrill Knapp and Miss Sarah Silcocke will retain their respective posts as vice-president and treasurer. Mrs. James Shriver, III, will serve as chairman of next year's benefit dance.

Goodheart to Attend U.N. Alan Goodheart, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Goodheart of 175 Princeton Avenue, has been selected by the United Nations Pilgrimage for U.N. Committee as its representative to the Pilgrimage from July 7 to July 13. The committee is a part of the Nassau Lodge No. 106, Independent Order Odd Fellows.

Three members of the Order, Melville Young, David Toole, and E. E. Satterthwaite, have visited Burlington Lodge No. 22 with a new candidate, Marvin Fiksen, who was initiated by the Burlington degree team. A committee from the Nassau Lodge will direct a tour of the University campus on Saturday for a group of 33 boys and girls from Denver who will visit Princeton.

Mrs. Schleyer is Delegate. Mrs. Paul Schleyer of 217-D Halsey Street has participated as a delegate in the annual meeting of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom in Miami, Florida. The theme of the meeting was "Non-violent Paths to Peace".

Mrs. Schleyer was a member of a panel discussion peaceful attitudes among children. The —Continued on Page 22

Tennis Classes Set. Ralph Papa, youth program director for the Princeton YMCA, announced this week that the 'Y' will begin its annual tennis classes for boys and girls, ages 10 through 14, next Tuesday. He urged all interested youngsters to register at the 'Y', 120 John Street, or telephone him at the YMCA (PL 3-3636).

Instructors for the course, according to Papa, will be Joseph Bachelor and Kenneth Wilson. Classes will be conducted from 9:30 to 11 a.m. each Tuesday and Thursday during the summer. Each participant must bring his own tennis racket and three unmarked tennis balls.

Sports In Princeton

FIRST PAC LOSS

Lois Hurter Unlucky, Harold (Porky) Phox, who with Ivan Riddick received little hitting support from their Princeton High teammates this week, led their son, experienced more of the same this Tuesday evening as the Princeton Athletic Club's host, its initial Tri-County League defeat at the hands of Montgomery Township, 4-2. Last week, in the loop opener, Riddick enjoyed substantial assistance, but this time Princeton's entry collected only two hits, a single and double by Alan Ammerman.

Dick Penickato, the Borough patrolman-turned-baseball spoiler, hurled the triumph for Montgomery as his fellow players nicked Phox for eight safeties, including a pair by Dan Delvechio. The victory for Montgomery and set back for the Princeton club both clubs with identical 1-1 records. Last Friday's first Princeton home game was rained out, so this Friday's 6:15 P. M. meeting with South Brunswick at PHS will be the delayed opener unless the first game can be re-scheduled for this Thursday evening.

In last week's only other contest, Princeton Junction launched its title search with an impressive 8-4 success over Montgomery. Howard Sweeney's good pitching, Hoy Ellis' home run and generally straight support after did the trick for the Junction Club.

DRAKE'S IN RUNAWAY

Victory No. 7, Bill Bergen fashioned a nifty one-hitter and his Drake's teammates threatened to run away with the 1957 Princeton Community Softball League race this week. Behind Bergen, who has pitched every game for the Plumbers, the fast-moving club chalked up win No. 7 without a setback—3-0 blanking of the Sportsmen—and thereby pushed the losers (4-2-1) into third place.

Defending champion Nassau Social Club (5-2), trying valiantly to keep in contention, produced a six-run third inning and whipped Pearson's, 8-5, thus administering the victims' sixth loss in seven outings. Joe Rauch barged out three hits and Jim Kahny cracked a home run to help NSC collect the victory.

ASOOP, commencing to capture a few contests after a slow start, brought its record to 3-4-1 with a decisive 12-3 win over a still-to-get-started Nassau Club nine. The Applied Scientists edged the losers in hits, 9-4, and sewed the victory.

up matters by putting together a six-run second and a four-run third. The outcome of a meeting between Frazer's and Sannino's was not reported to Town Topics, where official score sheets should be deposited after each game.

In the girls' division of the PCSL, Thorne's was removed from the unbeaten ranks by Bell Telephone, 9-6. Helen Schussler, Bell's short fielder, decided the encounter with a home, earning a win for pitcher Ginny Mershon.

News Of The CHURCHES

Pastor To Be Installed. The First Presbyterian Church of Plainsboro will have a new pastor this Sunday following the installation of the Rev. Robert L. Blackwell as minister of the church. Services will be held in the church at 8 p.m. The Rev. Mr. Blackwell succeeds the Rev. David L. Crawford who has accepted a call to serve as pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, Princeton.

A native of Scranton, the Rev. Mr. Blackwell has served the Presbyterian Church of Orchard Park, New York as assistant pastor for the past three years. He is a graduate of Lafayette College and Princeton Theological Seminary. With his wife and son, he will make his home in Plainsboro.

The following ministers in the Princeton area will participate in the Rev. John H. Marks who has been serving the Plainsboro congregation on an interim basis. The Rev. Norman J. Irving, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Orchard, New York, will give the Charge to his former assistant pastor.

Following the service, the women of the Plainsboro church will serve as hostesses at a reception.

PLAINSBO RO PASTOR: The Rev. Robert L. Blackwell will be installed this Sunday as minister of the Plainsboro Presbyterian Church.

in honor of the Rev. and Mrs. Blackwell.

Conviction Plus Tolerance. Intensity of conviction combined with respect for those who differ are the two prerequisites of a free people. Dr. Harold W. Dodds told a congregation of 2,000 persons gathered in University Chapel last Sunday to hear his farewell Baccalaureate Address.

"Tolerance," said President Dodds, "does not relieve one of the duty to possess and promote strong beliefs of his own. It does, however, recognize that the rational man cannot claim unconditional possession of the truth, although he is the one who can be confident that ultimate truth exists."

Dr. Dodds told the 673 members of the graduating class that "if you have caught the influence of the Chapel, you have learned that the greater truths of life and death will not go into a mathematical equation."

"Despite all of our material and intellectual progress, the solutions to the deepest problems are still a supreme response of faith. It is in our religion that we find the ultimate basis for being tolerant."

"Jesus did not preach the equality of human beings in respect to personal capacities or skills; but he did assert their equality before God, an equality which affirms the brotherhood of man."

Vacation Schools. Two interdenominational and inter-racial Vacation Bible Schools will open this week. At the Witherspoon Presbyterian Church, children from four to twelve (kindergarten through sixth grade) may attend Bible School from 9:11-11 a.m. each weekday morning from this Thursday through July 3.

The school is under the joint direction of the Witherspoon, Mt. Pisgah and First Baptist churches and children will be assigned to one of the three churches. Mrs. Bayard Jordan is superintendent, and Mrs. Dessie Christian is in charge of music.

Kingston the Presbyterian church will begin Vacation Bible School this Monday. It will run from 9:11-11:30 a.m. each weekday until July 11. Anyone desiring information about transportation should call the Rev. Henry W. Heaps, 1-1661.

Trinity Makes Plans

Members of the New York firm of Adams and Woodbridge have been retained as architects for the new Trinity parish buildings that will go up on the church's Snowden Lane property.

According to Hugh D. Wise, Jr., chairman of the Planning and Development Committee, a Parish House will be the first building of the new property, acquired last year as a gift from Mrs. Moses Taylor Pyne. In the Parish House, Trinity expects to have a large area for church and community gatherings, church school classrooms and family worship accommodations.

Meanwhile, back on Mercer Street, Trinity plans a new planing to shield the church yard from the new parking lot. A driveway will be laid from Sackett to the parking lot, and a new walk will be put in from Sackett to the main church door.

As Mr. Wise puts it, "We hope soon to invite you to walk in, two abreast, without dodging automobiles, hopping puddles, or collecting gravel in those low-cut Sunday shoes."

Princeton Branch of the organization has been awarded the prize for the largest percentage increase in membership for the past year of all branches in the United States. The next meeting will be held this Friday, 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Loren B. Johnston, 101 Overbrook Drive.

Seminar Planned. A seminar on the intestinal obstruction in the new-born will be held next Thursday, June 27, at 28 McCosh Hall on Campus. The seminar is sponsored by the Pediatric Society of Central N. J. and the N. J. State Department of Health, with Dr. Benjamin K. Silverman of 168 Guyot Avenue as program chairman.

Members of the faculty of the University of Pennsylvania Medical School and the staff of the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia will participate. The seminar will be followed by cocktails and dinner at the Nassau Tavern. A forum will be held after the dinner.

Arts and Crafts Exhibit. Some 40 pupils of the Sharon Studio will hold an exhibit of arts and crafts Sunday afternoon from 3 to 5 p.m.

"The display of their work may be seen at the home of Mrs. Ruth Sharon, 50 Deerpark. It is open to the public without charge."

Q-What Is Brookstone?
A-Brookstone is the former Russell Water, and is back in being improved into 76 building plots for sale to discerning purchasers.

Q-Where Is Brookstone?
A-Brookstone is in the exclusive Brookside Section of the Riverside Road and along historic Stony Brook. It is surrounded by the homes and estates of many prominent families of Princeton, all within the Township of Princeton.

Q-What effect would the proposed dam have on Brookstone?
A-Brookstone is downstream from the proposed dam and would NOT be adversely affected. The water quality of Brookstone lots would be stabilized, thus increasing their value.

Q-Are any homes under construction at Brookstone?
A-Yes. Other purchasers of lots are completing plans to have their homes built.

Q-How large are the plots?
A-Each homestead is at least 2 acres; plots have frontage on picturesque Stony Brook. Most lots are beautifully wooded; the rest are natural farmland.

Q-How many plots are available?
A-No more than 15 building sites are for sale this year.

Q-Are the utilities in?
A-Public water supply and electricity is now available to every plot in Section 1. A performance bond has been posted with the Township of Princeton guaranteeing all improvements.

Q-Are there restrictions?
A-To safeguard the purchaser, deed restrictions have been filed to assure architectural harmony with the natural beauty of the area. Entrance to Brookstone is only by way of Fellowship Drive, a 100 foot wide approach of 2 one-way roads regulated by a landscaped center mall. No individual driveways are permitted onto Brookside Road.

Q-Can a purchaser choose his own architect and builder?
A-Yes.

Q-Is title insurance available?
A-Yes. Plots are guaranteed and insured by a quarter-million dollar title policy. All lots in Section 1 are free and clear of any mortgage.

Q-How much is a lot?
A-Prices start from $10,000 for each plot.

Q-Who has more information and map of Brookstone?
A-See your own Broker or Realtor.

GOOD HOUSE, GOOD PRICE
for $22,500

This six year old ranch house was built by a builder for himself—we needn't say more, but we will. There's none of that crowded feeling you can get from a small ranch, as the living room (with big stone fireplace), and attractive kitchen are comfortably separated from the sleeping quarters, with a quarter three good bedrooms, bath and powder rooms, cedar and other nice closets. Most impressive of all, the huge basement which could easily be divided into work and play areas.

TWO LINE TEASERS**

Nice Township acreage (41 $\frac{1}{2}$ ), on slope, fine trees, brook, good area ..... \$2,500

Beautiful wooded Township lots,  $\frac{1}{2}$  acre and up ..... \$5,500 to \$15,000

Small furnished house, big living room, f.p., convenient, 14 mos. rental ..... $145

Attractive 2 story, sep. d., 4 bedrooms, 3 baths, Borough West end ..... $50,000

ATTRACTIVE AND AIRY

for $18,000

At time of writing the most exciting thing about this four-room house is that it is cool, cool, cool! Actually, it has lots to offer that would be important at all times of year. A lovely living room opening on to a screened porch, attractive dining room, four nice bedrooms plus an enormous room that has unlimited potentialities (2 more bedrooms, study, suite for in-laws, etc.) And here in the master terrace, gentlemen—this one with fireplace—already separated for working and playing. It seems to be a basement large family; and this charming, airy house is certainly ready to welcome just that.
